Dedicated Voters

Voting in the Aug. 6 Primary Election was reported "light to very light" in most Western Wayne County communities.

Despite repeated urgings by news media and pleas by public officials to registered voters to make use of their voting franchise, many area residents stayed away from the polls.

As we have said before and repeat here to those who have failed when able to cast their ballot in elections that they have no basis for complaining if election results are not to their liking.

WE LIKE to cite two illustrations of vote dedication that merit the attention of our readers.

A woman resident, 82 years of age, summoned a taxi to be taken to her voting precinct. After alighting from the taxi, she discovered that her voting precinct had been transferred to the Van Buren Township Hall, approximately two miles away. She walked to the new location and voted.

In another case, a man resident pedaled his sons bicycle some distance to his voting booth to make sure of voting in the primary when his wife failed to show up with the family car.

Home Plat Plan Approved

BELLEVILLE - A pre-preliminary plat plan presented to the Van Buren Planning Commission for the construction of a 600-home subdivision in Van Buren Township Aug. 7 was approved.

The initial plans for the proposed subdivision were presented by Rose-Hill Builders and Geake Associates, architects.

Howard Binkow of Rose Hill and Sheldon Wagner of the architectural firm appeared before the planners.

The 600-home subdivision is to be located in the northwest section of a land parcel, located at Haggerty Road and the I-94 Expressway.

At the July 23 Township Board meeting, Binkow proposed an agreement with township administration for the installation of water and sewer lines for the subdivision. It called for the building firm to install the sewer and water lines and then be reimbursed by the Township when the residential project is completed. Township Board is considering the proposed agreement.

He feels that county government is a full-time job and should be paid as a full-time position.

Bizek has indicated that if the job is not to be a full-time position with an adequate and appropriate salary, he is not in favor of giving up his present township supervisory post, if he has to choose between the two jobs.

He presently feels that he can serve both the township and the 24th District if the new post turns out to be a part-time job.

Attorney General Frank Kelley has expressed some disagreement over this "interpretation."

U.S. Approves UR Funds for City

BELLEVILLE --- Construction of a new Administration Office Building for the Van Buren Township Public School District is soon to get underway.

The Board of Education last week approved construction bids for the new structure slated for erection east of the new high school Auditorium. Both buildings are to be built adjacent to the present Belleville High School. Dale Kaulitz, school superintendent, announced. Total bids amounted to $452,507.

James Egan, school business manager reported the bids were:

The J. S. Vig Construction Company of Lincoln Park was the low bidder for the general construction work. The firm's bid was $262,494. Two other bids were received.

DeMare Construction of Detroit submitted a bid of $272,642 and the H.F. Good Building Company of Taylor, submitted a bid of $272,132.

THE LOW bid for mechanical work was submitted by Robertson Plumbing and Heating of Wayne. It was $78,500. Three other bids ranging from a high of $99,252 to $87,950 were received and rejected.

The low bid for electrical work was submitted by County Electric Company of Taylor. The bid was $49,330. Four other bids of $57,750 (high) to $55,359 were received.

Four firms submitted bids for special equipment. The low bid was $14,500 by Michigan Office Equipment of Kalamazoo for desks and tables. And the low bid of $15,142 submitted by Doubleday Brothers of Kalamazoo, for chairs and sofas. Both of these bids were approved.

ARCHITECTS FOR the new projects are Louis C. Kingscott & Associates, Inc., of Kalamazoo. Bids were studied by the architects prior to submission to the School Board.

The money for the new Administration Office Building and new Auditorium, already started, as well as a planned Junior High School, was made available when the School Board floated a $4.5 million bond issue for a building fund in 1965. Voters of the 50-square mile school district approved this bond issue in a 1965 election.

New Numbers

Bell Here Modifying Equipment

BELLEVILLE --- A central office equipment modification in Belleville's Oxbow (69) exchange was started this week by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

Edward H. McNamara, Michigan Bell Company's Belleville area manager, said the company is replacing older equipment with new switching apparatus in a continuing program to improve service.

One of the improvements in the changeover, McNamara said, will extend to party line subscribers. The new equipment will enable the company to provide "selective ringing," meaning that party line subscribers will hear only one ring other than their own on calls.

AS LINES are connected to the new equipment, Belleville subscribers will receive new telephone numbers.

Until the phase-out of older equipment is completed, callers will be able to reach emergency numbers, such as police and fire, by dialing either the old or new number.

McNamara said the new numbers will be listed in a new telephone directory to be distributed next April.

Huron Vote Light: New Trustee Elected

NEW BOSTON --- Incumbent trustee Raymond Kreyger seeking re-election was nominated by township voters in the Aug. 6 primary election, and incumbent Fred Bragener was defeated unofficial vote returns showed.

Total vote case was 833, Mrs. Wilma Wilson, township clerk, reported. The township has a registered vote list of 2,657.

Incumbent Raymond Kreyger (D) of 18145 Huron River Drive, led with a vote total of 362 votes. Donald Radabaugh (D) of 28033 Waltz Road, received 250 votes and election. Their Republican opponents: James Tillotson of 34900 Prescott, received 110 votes; and incumbent Fred Bragener of 19336 Waltz Road was defeated, he received 142 votes.

The candidates vied for two expiring four-year terms on the Board of Trustees.

Township voters approved the Wayne County One-Mill Proposition by a vote of 443 to 183 and approved the State Propositions: Proposal No. 1 passed by a vote of 415 to 189; Proposal No. Two was approved by a vote of 324 to 256 and Proposal No. Three by a vote of 346 to 222.

Troutt, (D) received 283 votes to lead the state Representative race in the township. Harold Moon (R) from Dundee, received 48 votes and Dale Wagenknecht of Petersburg, Monroe County, who will face Mahalak in the November according to unofficial returns in the 38th District, received 96 votes in Huron Township.

Veterans Reminded

More than half of the 210,000 Michigan veterans who hold $1,557,545,000 worth of government life insurance have not yet converted these policies from term to a permanent plan, Robert Fitzgerald, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office, Detroit, has reported.

He pointed out that last year Michigan veterans paid $24,753,000 in premiums to keep both term and permanent government life insurance policies in force.

Most of the term policies are held by World War II and Korean Conflict veterans, the manager said. Now at an average age of nearly 49, World War II veterans in Michigan who have not converted their government life insurance will soon find their National Service Life Insurance premiums going up as a result of advancing age.

Fitzgerald noted, for example, that the premium at age 40 for an NSLI term policy climbs 50 per cent at age 50, and becomes three times the age 40 premiums when a veteran reaches age 60.

Teacher Contract Talks Resumes on Thursday

BELLEVILLE --- Negotiations on a new 1968-69 employment contract for teachers of the Van Buren Public School District will resume tomorrow (Thursday, Aug. 15) at the Belleville High School, it was announced.

The session will be a continuation of those held prior to the millage election of Aug. 5.

Issues still unresolved, according to Kenneth Askew, chief negotiator for the some 300 teachers are:

A school Board proposal (submitted prior to the election and based on reduced programs and services) to enlarge class size; A Van Buren Education Association's proposal for provisions of life insurance; and an Associations proposal for Financial Responsibility for all teachers.

A RATIFICATION

"VBEA has not made any changes in its proposed actions pending action of the Board."

Askew reported that six school districts in recent contract settlements have an average salary range of $6,963 for teachers with Bachelor Degrees to a maximum of $12,188 for teachers with Master Degrees and ten years experience.

Ford Reports Record Employment

Ford Motor Company worldwide employment and payrolls for the first half of 1968 were at the highest levels of any six-month period in the company's history.

Ford's U.S. operations and subsidiaries around the world employed an average of 415,772 men and women during the first half of the year -- 23,227 more than the 392,545 employed in the comparable 1967 period.

Worldwide payrolls of $1670,217,000 were up $314,671,000 from the 1967 first-half figure of $1,355,546,000.

Ford U.S. employment (including Philco-Ford Corporation) reached a record average of 248,647 in the first half of 1968 -- up 9,370 from an average of 239,277 employed a year ago. More than 3,500 of the employment increase was in Michigan.

Ford U.S. payrolls (also including Philco-Ford) rose to a record $1,343,041,000 in the January-June period. This was more than $270,000,000 higher than the $1,072,223,000 paid to employees in the first six months of 1967.

VB School Board Approves Administration Office Bids

BELLEVILLE --- Officials of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Washington, D.C., have approved a federal grant of $64,563 as survey and planning funds for an Urban Renewal Project in the City of Belleville, Mayor Royce E. Smith, announced Monday.

Mayor Smith, who has been working diligently toward getting U.S. approval, disclosed that Congressman William D. Ford (D) 15th District, telephoned him last week and reported the federal agency's approval and grant.

The mayor stated that he will now set up conferences with the city's Planning Consultants, Parkins, Rogers & Associates, Inc., of Detroit, on initiating the required surveys and plans for the community's first Urban Renewal Project.

CONGRESSMAN FORD also reported that the sum of $358,000 has been reserved for the project which includes the planning and survey grant.

The city's first Urban Renewal site consists of land less than two acres in size. It is basically bounded on the north by Main Street, on the east by Roy's Street, on the south by an east-west line approximately 200 feet south of Main Street and on the west by High Street.

A Workable Program, essential and mandatory to the procuring of federal monies for federal-city sponsored projects, was submitted to the Chicago office of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development around the first of the year (1968).

The Workable Program is a program for community improvement and for the elimination and prevention of blight. It must be submitted yearly and showed improvement programs and results toward this end, Mayor Smith said.

The Workable Program report dispatched to Chicago showed improvements in various areas of government operations.

Council also reported to Federal officials that the described area (Urban Renewal site) is a slum, blighted, deteriorated or deteriorating location appropriate for an Urban Renewal Project. And that development of the area for predominately non-residential uses is necessary for the proper development of the Belleville community.

Hannan Road School Design Wins Award

NEW BOSTON --- KMM Associates, of Ann Arbor architects for the Huron School District's Hannan Road Elementary School, announced that the building has received a national award for its design. The building design will be on display in Washington D.C. on Oct. 7 - 10, and later, at the Superintendent's national meeting in Atlantic City.

Construction of the new building will begin soon. The school is scheduled to open in September, 1969.

Highpoint of the design is its flexibility in regard to educational techniques. While a typical school program is possible, the design encourages the use of team - teaching and non - graded approaches. Spaces are provided to allow a variety of groupings, so necessary in today's Education.

DESPITE ITS award winning nature, the school will be built below the average per pupil cost and per square foot cost for Wayne County construction.

The project is part of a $3.6 million construction program ordered by the citizens in December, 1966.

Nixon's Task

The Republicans have chosen as their presidential nominee a man of immense determination and persistence. Only such a man could have made so spectacular a political comeback after his heart-breaking defeat for the presidency in 1960 and his career-blunting setback in the California governorship race in 1962. Richard Nixon is also, clearly and unmistakably, the man behind whom the politicians and the vote-getters of the Republican Party are most anxious to rally.

These facts will, unless unforeseen circumstances arise to upset them, make Mr. Nixon a formidable contestant this fall. To these must also be added the fact that, for millions of Americans, this is a "new" Nixon, one not saddled with the unfavorable judgment of him which was so wide-spread in the early 1960's. Finally, it would appear as of now as though Mr. Nixon were also fortunate in both the national political atmosphere which prevails today and in the type of issues on which the campaign can largely be fought.

At the same time, it must not be forgotten that there is, particularly among older voters, a substantial residue of the old anti-Nixon sentiment, which led to his defeats in both 1960 and 1962. Furthermore, Mr. Nixon has consistently failed to show in public opinion polls the kind of strength which his backers must have hoped for. Thus, obviously, the most grueling and uncertain of Mr. Nixon's challenges lie ahead.

Perhaps the biggest challenge before the Republican nominee is to convince a majority of Americans that he has truly moved with the times. He himself candidly admits that his views on a number of important subjects have evolved, thus frankly conceding that his former positions would not be adequate today. This in itself is a mark of growth and honesty.

Yet many will still ask whether he has moved onto the middle-ground, which appears to be the American consensus. While large numbers will be drawn to him because of his strong insistence upon the necessity for law and order, others will ask whether he is equally determined to fight for those improvements in society which will make America less fertile ground for violence.

Another major challenge is bound to be the candidate's program for ending the war in Vietnam. Heretofore Mr. Nixon has been purposely vague on this issue. Greater clarity on this issue will be demanded of him (and of his Democratic rival as well) in the near future.

Mr. Nixon's fortunes clearly lie with the country's vast independent voterdom. In approaching these he has several strong points upon which to build. One is his wide range of political experience. A second is his obvious effort to take a middle-of-the-road position on most vital issues. A third is the apparent willingness of large numbers of these independents to be convinced of the candidate's presidential worthiness. But convince them he must, if he is to move into the White House come January. (From the Christian Science Monitor)

POOR MAN'S CARUSO — Seems like the special cargo these two ramp service men had been loading onto a cargo jet going to Paris has created an atmosphere to express this young man's inner - desire as he belts out a full throated song from the Barber of Seville to an attentive listener. The two men had been in the process of loading the entire wardrobe and stage props of the world famous Metropolitan Opera Company departing from nearby Metro Airport to France. The young Caruso later stated that this was as close as he thought he would ever get to singing with the Metropolitan Opera and figured he might as well have his "shining hour".

COMMEND CHAMBER

VB School Board, Staff Say 'Thanks'

BELLEVILLE — Van Buren Township Board of Education and administrative officials of the Van Buren Public School System officially commended and expressed "genuine appreciation" to the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce's Directors and staff as well as to many citizens who made their homes available for group millage meetings. The letter, dated Aug. 9 follows:

Dear Members of Chamber of Commerce:

Genuine appreciation is expressed by the Board of Education and myself, as the official representative of the Board of Education, in the recent election for needed millage for the Van Buren Public Schools, for all of the time consuming work done by the Chamber of Commerce.

Without your organizations hard work, due to your devotion to maintain an outstanding community with a good quality school system, a "yes" vote at the August 5th election would not have been possible.

Special "thanks" go to your President, Justin Emerson, for providing outstanding leadership in the election campaign.

Another word of appreciation is expressed to Mr. Irv Wallace, Barbara Rogalle and Bart Berg, who were chairmen of group millage meetings.

Certainly we are grateful to the many citizens that opened their homes to our meetings. Also, thanks is appropriate to the other organizations and citizens that supported our great need for our future citizens education.

It is only through such civic minded groups, as the Chamber of Commerce, that we can maintain our democratic way of life through offering every child opportunity for a full education.

How to Count Bodies

By JIM FITZGERALD

LIKE THE MAN WHO flipped over Marilyn Monroe because he liked her voice, too many people are still getting excited about the right things for the wrong reasons.

For example, take Lt. Col. Richard McMahon, an army intelligence officer who made all the newspapers recently when he blasted the body count. That's the incredible system whereby the U. S. somehow counts the enemy dead and then uses the bloody statistics to gauge the progress of the Vietnam war.

The result is a daily report to the public, telling how many Viet Cong have been killed in the past 24 hours. There's nothing about regaining lost ground and liberating occupied cities, as in World War II. The obvious conclusion is that the U. S. is in Vietnam simply to kill and to keep close count of the bodies — every rifle platoon must have its own scorekeeper. Of course, there's another, more valid conclusion: The U. S. is desperately trying to prove it's winning a game it should not be in, and can't possible win. And we are reduced to weighing blood to prove that the good guys are ahead.

So it was gratifying to read that an intelligence officer disapproved of the body count. But my gratification turned sour after the first paragraph. I deplore the count because it is a ghastly spit in the face of civilized man. But Col. McMahon is against it for a far different reason — some of the counters are cheating. They are padding the figures — watering the blood, you might say — thus upsetting battle plans, for goodness sake.

No kidding. McMahon said the body count was started as "an attempt to make sure that only enemy dead physically observed would be reported." This was to prevent hearsay evidence. You can't say your buddy splattered two Cong on the other side of the hill. You have to go see those Cong yourself, or don't report them. I guess each corpse is chalked X to make sure it isn't counted twice. At any rate, all of this was OK with McMahon. He didn't get bugged until it became apparent that some of the boys were bragging more than they were killing.

"Some American and many South Vietnamese units began submitting estimates which reflected favorably on their prowess," McMahon explained.

Please note how he said just "some" Americans but "many" South Vietnamese were claiming more blood than they were spilling. Our white hat might occasionally get soiled along the brim, but it is still the whitest hat in the world, by golly, and you'd better believe it. Actually, it's those little gooks who counted most of the bodies that weren't there.

McMahon urges that the body count be dropped altogether because battle plans based on "exaggerated enemy casualties can result in disaster."

In other words, a U. S. platoon might attack a village where there is supposed to be only 10 Cong because 50 were killed there this morning. Cpt. Cribber counted them himself. But the corporal was bucking for sergeant and he multiplied when he should have added. There's actually 30 Cong in the village and the U. S. platoon is wiped out. And the Cong will probably count it as a regiment, thus proving that killers can be liars on both sides of a war.

I can see why Col. McMahon is unhappy with the body count and he has my grudging sympathy. But I wonder if he, like too much of the world, sees only digits and less firepower when he reads that "87 Viet Cong were killed this morning."

It is too bad the body count statistics can't include such information as: "One of the 89 killed was Joe Wong, 22-year-old father of two children. He never saw his baby son. He is also survived by his wife and parents who loved him. Joe Wong had planned to complete his university studies and become a research scientist. He might have discovered the cure for cancer. Or he might just have lived to be 72 and have three more children and some grandchildren and be happy on a lot of days, and sad on other days. He might have caught some fish with that son he never saw."

Before the hawks start sticking me with pencils, let me hasten to say — I know it works both ways. I would like to see the counts of American bodies published the same way. I don't for a minute say the Viet Cong are right and the Americans are wrong. I say they are both wrong; civilization is horribly wrong. When a people can count crushed young boys the same way they'd count fallen logs, something is grievously wrong.

While stuffed shirts hold endless peace talks in Paris, boys are being killed and only the immediate survivors weep. And we have people getting excited about the correct way to count their bodies.

For God's sake, let's get excited about the killing.

Odds on Having Accident Shown

If you drive, what are the odds that you will be involved in an accident on the highways during the next 12 months?

About one in four, the Institute for Safer Living, disclosed.

Odds are two out of three that the accident will occur on a straight road with one of the involved vehicles either stopped or moving slowly into or out of a lane of moving traffic.

And the odds are one to eleven that as an involved driver you will either be killed or incur some disabling injury from the accident.

The Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, most accidents are preventable because when one driver commits a driving error, he or another driver, as the case may be, fails to compensate for this error.

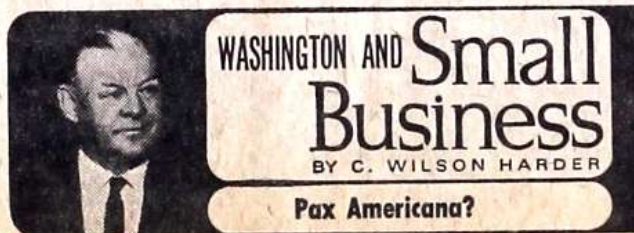

IN OTHER WORDS, to drive defensively and avoid preventable accidents one must be responsive to changing conditions in the mile at hand in order to be prepared to meet the hazards that will develop in the mile ahead.

The defense driver recognized that he is never completely free from danger. He always suspects and remains alert to detect the unexpected.

By recognizing the exposures that do exist, he is constantly planning on how he can best protect himself from them as well as from the unpredictable actions of others that could develop.

A preventable accident occurs when you fail to apply yourself to your driving job in a professional manner.

Former servicemen will be honored on Veterans Day, Saturday, August 24, at the Michigan State Fair, Veterans and Servicemen, with credentials, will be admitted free until 3 p.m. The State Fair opens August 23 and continues through September 2.

Some of the leading candidates for the presidency are promising that if elected there will be no more Vietnams.

While of course, campaign promises are not the most reliable declarations ever made, there is good reason to believe that such promises are finding acceptance among the responsible people of the nation.

For sentiment coming in from the grass roots level all over the nation appears to be questioning the validity of continued American military adventures abroad.

Woodrow Wilson ran for reelection on the promise to keep the U. S. out of World War I. Eventually the nation tipped the balance and a victory was won, but all of Russia was turned over to communism.

World War I created the pressures that created World War II and again a victory was won. But half or more of Europe went communist and practically all of Asia.

Thus, there is a growing question apparent in American minds as to the value on military undertakings in seeking to solve the problems of the entire world.

There is no question that the American military might is vast, if not kept under the thumb of civilian control pursuing vague policies as has been the case in Vietnam.

But warfare, especially modern warfare, extracts a terrible toll on the lands over which it is fought. After the victory, there is need for restoration of the lands and their economies in order that the chaos of despair and misery does not breed more communism.

Since the end of World War II the American taxpayers have paid out over 150 billions of dollars to help the world get on its feet, and judging from the reports from most parts of the world, except in a few instances, the world is not much better off for it.

In the meantime, the American economy has been severely jeopardized. There is a substantial question just where the economy would be if it were not for Vietnam.

While this nation undoubtedly must always maintain a strong defense establishment, there is a question as to whether the nation can ever afford to again engage in military operations primarily entered into to resolve internal disputes in other lands.

Enforcing the Pax Romano at the end of some 300 years ended Rome, but that was in the days when the chief weapon was a relatively inexpensive sword. The Pax Britannica enforced by England lasted a shorter time, but again weaponry was relatively low in cost, and even that effort brought England to its knees. Now in an era when the sophisticated weaponry necessary makes cheap wars impossible, any attempt to enforce a Pax America could be of very short duration, indeed. This, is cause for concern.

W.F. Jenkins for the Board of Directors of Van Buren Civic Association

TO THE EDITOR:

On July 23, Mrs. Julie Sawmiller, a resident of Van Buren Township, petitioned Governor George Romney to remove the Van Buren Township Supervisor from office, charging "malfeasance, misfeasance in office, official misconduct, and neglect of duty", and documented those charges. She presented a copy of the charges to the Supervisor at the Township Board Meeting on the same day.

Although Mrs. Sawmiller is a board member of the Van Buren Civic Association, she made it clear — as noted in the local press — that she was taking this action as a concerned citizen and not as a representative of any organization. Mrs. Sawmiller spent many hours on her own searching public records over a period of many months to compile the information contained in her petition to the Governor. It should be further noted that the petition action was taken only after personal inquiries failed to produce satisfactory answers.

The Directors of the Van Buren Civic Association believe that Julie Sawmiller should be commended for her persistent effort to bring to public

WORTH TALKING ABOUT

"We must recognize that there may be excellence or shoddiness in every line of human endeavor. We must learn to honor excellence (indeed, to demand it) in every socially accepted human activity, and to scorn shoddiness, however exalted the activity. An excellent plumber is infinitely more admirable than an incompetent philosopher. The society which scorns excellence in plumbing because plumbing is a humble activity, will have neither good plumbing nor good philosophy. Neither its pipes nor its theories will hold water."

Denial of Basic Needs Indecent Says Hart

WASHINGTON, D.C. — WITH A GROWING awareness that chronic hunger and malnutrition do exist extensively in the United States, the Senate has instructed the new commission to study the food, medical and other related basic needs among the American people and then to make recommendations for possible action by Congress.

Hart was appointed last Friday, Aug. 2 to the newly-created Senate Select Committee on Nutrition and Human Needs — a committee that will place a great deal of emphasis on meeting the hunger situation in America.

Hart's appointment to this committee reflects his long-standing efforts to help needy children get at least their minimum daily food requirement, especially under provisions of the school lunch program.

Hart said: "I continue to be deeply concerned about the young children in this country who may grow up physically and educationally handicapped because no one in their family could afford to bring home the milk and cereal that most American families take for granted."

DICK and BILL HOOK

Did you know... Self-dissolving Confetti was invented by William Hale, a British barber. He combined food preservatives and vegetable colorings to make rainbow particles that dissolve in rain or are eaten by birds. This is welcome news for city street cleaners...

Statistics showed a link between tax deadlines and stomach upsets. Visits to doctors for hyper-acidity-related conditions were consistently high as April 15 approached. In addition, a pharmaceutical company reported a moderate seasonal rise in purchases of tablets and liquids taken for dyspepsia and acid indigestion during the months of February through April.

No matter what the season, be sure that your clothes always look their best. Bring them to HOOK'S CLEANERS INC., 32328 Mich. Ave., Wayne, 35 Main, Belleville, 37311 Goddard, Romulus, for professional 1-day cleaning. Shirts - in by 10 out by 4.

HELPFUL HINT: A faded carpet can be refreshed if sponged with a wet cloth wrung from strong salt water.

HELP YOURSELF - Everyone for himself was the routine last Tuesday, August 6, as some 150 Belleville Rotarians, their families, and guests met at Edison Point for the Club's annual picnic. Kentucky-fried chicken was on the menu with ice-cold watermelon following for dessert. All Around The Town . . . with Lee

VACATIONING

BACK HOME and getting things readied for a visit from Gwen's mother are the A. R. Lieblers - 'Lieb', Gwen and Ray - of Ormond drive. The threesome recently spent three days in Langdon, North Dakota as houseguests of Lieb's dad, Lloyd Liebler, and were royally entertained each night of their stay by friends and relatives. A cookout at the home of Bob and Laura Welles was the first gathering with Adam and June Symour playing host the following night. That was for a reunion of Lieb's former school friends who brought along those old 'keepsake' pictures and clippings which add so much to 'remembering when' and 'gad how you've changed.'

Lieb's sister, Penny, and her husband, Arvid Boe, lastly invited friends and relatives in for a cocktail party and cook-out before they were flown back to Grand Forks the next day for their jet flight home. Piloting one of the private planes was that sister, Penny, who is able to fly with a licensed pilot (she's at that stage of getting her license) and, of course, her brother is made to order (he's a pilot for Universal).

After a week at home, the Lieblers again took off for a weekend around Northern Michigan - Gwen seeing our state's beauty for the first time since their move here some three-odd years back.

Taking the route via Alpena, they traveled into the Upper Peninsula to the Soo Locks and also spent a day on Mackinac Island, before motoring homeward.

IN FROM THE ISLES

FISCHER ROAD residents, Harry and Donna Hidenfelter, and their son, Bill, are back in the States following a three weeks tour of England and Scotland. Departing Detroit Metro on July 17, they winged their way across the Atlantic to London where they took in as many sights as possible including the colorful changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace. While there they became acquainted with the Daniel Turners who invited them to their suburban Richmond home for tea. Mr. Turner, a retired engineer, was eager to repay Americans, in general, for their many kindnesses to him during his visit here in the forties and the Hidenfelters happened to be the lucky couple he chose.

At Wilmette, a hamlet near Stratford On Avon, they looked up relatives of Mrs. Walter Noff, Fred and Ivy Edkins, who had them in for the night and then acted as their guides in seeing the many Shakespearean places of interest and beauty. In Scotland they traveled as far north as Edinburgh and did as much as their allotted time allowed them.

HERE 'N THERE

THE TURNEYS - Leo and Virginia - seeing what nice weather Sunday produced, got on the phone and called several friends for an impromptu get-together. Joining them for a picnic dinner (roast venison was the entree) followed by baseball and jarts were the Bob Perry family, the Bill Doonan and Al Cicotte families, Cliff and Shirley Wenger, and Cliff's dad, the senior Mr. Wenger. . . RECENT WEEK-END guests at the S. Biggs street home of Harvey and Elaine Stabnau were Walter and Carol Ehli and their children, Allen and Kris, and Ronald and Theresa Becker, all from St. Paul, Minnesota. Carol is the former Carol Purington who lived on Henry street and attended Belleville High back in 1944. . . THE LEONARD HUDGES, visiting for the past couple weeks. Last Thursday they spent the afternoon with Joe and Pauline Milosch, former Bellevillites, now owners of Carleton Glen Golf Club at Carleton. While Leonard, his son, Bill, and son-in-law, Bert Smith, got in 18 holes, the ladies caught up on a back-log of news. The foursome was later dinner guests of the Milosches in the clubhouse. . . CONGRATULATIONS TO Belleville's answer-to-the-theater-world, Frank Upton, on his new post - that of vice president and general manager of the Music Hall in Detroit. There's more information on Frank on our entertainment page.

CAMPING'S OVER

BACK TO routine at their Crandell court home are Roger and Diane Ferguson (she's our classified ads gal), their son, Leslie, and twins, Shawn and Shari. Returning Thursday from the Upper Peninsula, they report having beautiful weather for camping and not having to visit any garbage dumps to see our northern bears. Twice they were visited by the burly creatures - once while camping at Porcupine Mountains State Park and again at Tahquamenon Falls.

The iron and copper mines, the boating activities at the Soo Locks, and Michigan's many points of interest were on their itinerary as well as a two day visit with relatives, the Joe Werys, at Escanaba.

IN FROM NEW YORK

MRS. NORMAN BAUMANN, of Ozga road, is finding life has slowed down somewhat since her return from an eight-day trip to New York City. Jetting to the metropolis with Enid Ricardeau, of Detroit, the ladies attended the Dance Masters of America Convention at the Statler-Hilton and the many social functions which go with conventions.

Cramming in just everything - they saw or visited just about every important spot in the city - they returned home Sunday morning. Seeing several Broadway shows was one of the highlights for Mrs. Baumann who included "Golden Rainbow" with Steve Lawrence and Edie Gorme; "Happy Times" starring Robert Goulet; and the performance of the Rockettes at Radio City Music Hall; in her lists of 'musts'.

SHOWER TIME

Double ring vows were exchanged July 6 at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Wayne, between Maureen Lynn Smith and Alexander D. Pulk.

Escorted to the sanctuary by her uncle, Daniel M. Kelly, Maureen appeared in a formal gown of silk linen frosted with Venice lace. Styling details on the high-rise bodice were a squared neckline and bracelet sleeves with an inverted front pleat forming the A-line skirt. A detachable lace-trimmed train added back interest to the gown.

Imported seed pearls studded the bow headpiece which secured her illusion veil and she carried an arrangement of miniature carnations encircling a white orchid.

FATHER RAYMOND J. Sayers officiated at the ceremony which united the daughter of Mrs. George L. Smith, of 124 N. Biggs street, Belleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Pulk, of 42 Filbert, Wayne.

Following the eleven o'clock nuptials a reception for some 200 guests was held at the P.N.A. Hall, Belleville.

Mrs. Georgeann Cheek, of Belleville, was her sister's

In identical frocks were Vicky Kunnath, of Battle Creek; Linda Cheek, of Belleville; and Mrs. Gwenn Dashed, of Westland, the bridegroom's sister.

Appearing as a miniature bride was Barbara Kelly the bride's eight-year old cousin. The tiny bouquet she held was comprised of orange-tipped carnations and orange roses. The bride's nine-year old brother, Jeffery, carried out his role as ringbearer.

BEST MAN was Jack Merritt, of Wayne, and the corps of ushers included Roy Cheek, of Belleville, the bride's brother-in-law; and Errol and Richard Pulk, both brothers of the bridegroom, from Wayne.

Greeting guests at the reception, Mrs. Smith wore a turquoise chiffon and crepe dress with a turquoise and white hat. A brown sheath with white accessories was the choice of Mrs. Pulk for her son's wedding. Both mothers added corsages of white carnations to their outfits.

Graduates of Wayne Memorial and Belleville High Schools, respectively, the new Mr. and Mrs. Pulk are making their home in Virginia where he is serving with the U. S. Navy.

Kidd Have Busy Week With Friends

Charles Eddy, of Los Alamos, Calif., has been a recent house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kidd, of W. Huron River drive. Last Thursday they motored to St. Clair Shores where Mr. and Mrs. George Dawson and Miss Christine Nieman entertained at a birthday celebration honoring Mrs. Kidd and Mr. Eddy.

On Tuesday they drove to Davison to visit Mrs. Kidd's parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Nieman, and her brother, Roland Nieman. While in that city they paid their respects to Mrs. Roland Nieman's father, Bert Russell, who passed away following a lengthy illness.

On Friday evening the Kidds were pleasantly surprised by the arrival of friends from Pellston - Mr. and Mrs. Sid Reinhold, son Mike, and daughter, Mary Emma. While in this area the group enjoyed several visits with Mrs. Reinhold's brother, Dave Ferst, and family of Allen Park. Being a former Home Extension Agent and now an avid doll collector, Mrs. Reinhold was fascinated by viewing the extensive collection of H.G. Mac Vittie in Highland Park. While the decision of what to do and when to do it is left completely up to the Scouts, generally they go hiking, swim, canoe, play games, sing, do handicrafts, study nature and conservation, and learn campcraft skills.

All three girls are Junior Girl Scouts. Cheryl is in troop 179 led by Mrs. Keith Heiss and sponsored by the Stony Creek Grange. Donna and Janet are in troop 628 led by Mrs. John McClary and sponsored by the E.U.B. Church.

"The Church For All - With A Savior For All"

August Wedding Followed By Mackinac Island Trip

* Virginia Frye Weds *

An August 2 wedding in the Grace Baptist Church of Belleville was planned by Virginia S. Frye and George M. Thompson, both of Belleville. Their double ring nuptials were read by the Rev. Kinniman Crawford before an altar adorned with arrangements of pink carnations, white gladioli, and tropical ferns. Donna Coggins at the organ accompanied Richard Hunter who was soloist of the happy occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan B. Frye, of 46372 Willis road, and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Thompson, of Clayton road, are parents of the young couple who honeymooned on Mackinac Island following their reception in the church hall.

PRESENTED IN marriage by her father, Virginia appeared in a bouffant creation of Chantilly lace and tulle styled with a scalloped, square neckline and wristpoint sleeves on the fitted lace bodice. Her tiered tulle skirt, banded in lace, swept into a chapel train as she walked.

Her mid-back veil of white nylon mesh was caught to a petaled headpiece of lace, pearls, and rhinestones, and her bouquet was comprised of cascading white carnations and blue bachelor buttons centered with an orchid.

Another interesting point is that her only great-grandchild is visiting here from Pine Bluff, Arkansas - the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conell Jones.

Church Lists Guest Celebrant

BELLEVILLE - Rev. Fred Nicholson formerly of St. David's Church, Garden City, will be the guest celebrant at Trinity Episcopal Church, 11575 Belleville Road, on Aug. 18 and 25 at the 8:00 a.m. Holy Communion Service.

Mr. Nicholson has retired recently from St. David's Church, which he served from its beginning in 1955.

Prior to his decision to enter the ministry, Mr. Nicholson was the Academic Supervisor of the Henry Ford Trade School. He attended the Virginia Theological Seminary in 1952 and after graduation was ordained to the priesthood on July 17, 1955 in his home parish of Christ Church, Cranbrook.

For her wedding day the bride donned a floorlength gown accented with a cathedral-length train. Fashioned of lace over taffeta, the A-line creation featured an empire bodice with a scalloped neckline and elbow sleeves slashed and caught to a taffeta bow.

A floral headpiece secured her mid-back veil of illusion and she carried a cascade of white carnations and white roses.

KAREN A. CARNEY, as maid of honor, wore a pink short-sleeved frock of chiffon styled in the empire mode. Carrying out the rainbow theme of the wedding were the bridegroom's sister, Mary Lange, in a sleeveless yellow gown and Karen Moose, of Romulus in green. The nosegays they held were made up of white carnations tipped to match their dresses.

The bridegroom asked his brother, Raymond E. Lange, to be best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, Steven Carnill, of Lincoln Park, and the bridegroom's uncle, Herman Lange, of Taylor.

The church gymnasium was the setting for the reception which followed. A second reception was held later in the evening at the Marvil Lange home, Romulus.

Among those congratulating the newlyweds were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Frank Sarchet, of Taylor, and Mrs. Court Watson, of Dayton, Ohio.

BITS 'N PIECES

PATTI PERRY, who will turn 11 this Thursday, had an early celebration of her birthday last Friday - all because her very good friend, Wendy Turney, would be keeping a date for a tonsillectomy this week and would be in no condition for partying on the actual date. So Friday it was off to Barton Hills Country Club with Patti's mother, Mrs. Robert Perry, for swimming and luncheon. Also in on the outing was another friend, Linda Doonan. ED AND MARY Anne Hudge had a delightful day Sunday as guests of Ron and Jan Sierota on board the 'Janrene' - Jan's father's cruiser which is docked at the Detroit Yacht Club. Following cocktails and hor d'oeuvres with their pilot and navigator, Patti and Mrs. John Kadlubowski, the three couples had dinner at the club then cruised the Detroit River for the remainder of the day. TONY GRECA has been home from Lowrey Air Force Base, Colorado, to spend a 15-day leave with his parents, the Don Grekas, of Bemis road. Tony's new assignment will take him to California. Girl Scouts of 1920-30 Era You're Needed

The Huron Valley Girl Scouts are looking for women that were in the organization in the early days of the movement.

The council was organized in 1958 from several small councils and lone troop areas, according to Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, Plymouth, president of the council.

"What we're looking for," said Mrs. Hulsing, "are women that were in the organization - as girls or as leaders - in the 1920's and 1930's or even before. We'd like to talk with them about some of their remembrances."

This fall will mark the 10th birthday of the Huron Valley Council and plans are being made now for an anniversary observance.

Anyone with old snapshots, newspaper clippings, or other records of early Scout activities that can be loaned to the Scouts are asked to contact the Huron Valley Council office, 310 S. Huron, Ypsilanti, or the association chairman, Dorothy Simons, (Mrs. George) 45150 Van Born Rd., Belleville, phone 697-7921.

Only about one out of five guests checking into motels make use of the swimming pools, according to the American Hotel and Motel Association.

Open Class Exhibits For 4-H Fair Still Possible

Do you have the prettiest garden flowers in your neighborhood? Is your vegetable garden the best in town? Do you sell the best sweet corn and muskmelons in Wayne County? Does your queen of the kitchen bake the best cake or cookies anyone has ever eaten? Do you have the tallest corn or the largest pumpkin around here?

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, you can still round up an exhibit, make an entry, get it judged and win a grand prize at the Wayne County 4-H Fair. But you'll have to move fast. Entries for these events only are at staggered intervals during the balance of this Fair week.

Bring a wheelbarrow-load of garden vegetables Wednesday evening, Aug. 14, (tonight); an old-fashioned bouquet of flowers Thursday afternoon or evening; a washtubful of sweet corn or a pyramid of 36 prime muskmelons on Friday evening; or a whole cake or a whole batch of cookies on Saturday afternoon. No previous entry needed - just get your entry ready and bring it in.

Big prizes in these events: a large trophy cup and $15 for 1st prize, with nine other cash prizes in each event.

So even though the Fair is in full swing as you read this item there is still time to get your prizewinners together and find out just how good they really are.

Woman Walks Over Two Miles to Vote

BELLEVILLE - An unusual report about a Van Buren Township woman resident's dedication to exercising her voting franchise was disclosed Monday.

Mrs. Anna Owens, 82, of 41430 Ecorse Road, near Haggerty Road, summoned a taxi on Primary Election Day, Aug. 6, to be driven to her voting precinct, located at Fire Station No. 2, on Ecorse Road.

When she arrived there and alighted from the taxi, she discovered that the voting precinct had been transferred to the Township Hall, located on Tyler Road, some two miles away. The taxi had disappeared.

The voting is "very important," walked to the Township Hall. Officials at the hall reported that Mrs. Owens appeared to be on the verge of collapsing. She cast her ballot after considerable rest.

Trustee Joseph Hogan in the course of campaigning for re-election, took Mrs. Owens home. She related that she had voted Republican all her life and did so again Aug. 6.

On the way home she inquired as to where she could purchase some roofing cement. The next day, Hogan took two gallons of roofing cement to her home and was happy to know that the Township has a resident who cherishes her voting rights.

DID YOU SAY HEAT WAVE? — If there was a heat wave around these parts this past week this five-year-old sure did not know about it or could care less. Matter of fact little Cheri told this reporter this trick had a two-fold purpose. It not only beats the heat but you wash your hair at the same time . . . does make a bit of sense at that!

SOME HOLD GRAND TOUR

300 Ford Model A Cars Make Homecoming Trip to Dearborn

The Ford Model A came home - in factory - fresh condition after more than 40 years of service.

No fewer than 300 of them made a homecoming trip to Dearborn last weekend.

The home city of Ford Motor Company was the site (Aug. 9-11) of the Model A Restorers Club (MARC) national meet marking the 40th birthday of the Model A, successor to 15,000,000 Ford Model T's.

Cars from all over the United States and Canada participated in the three-day event, which opened last Friday morning with an all-day, parts - swapping session on the grounds of the Ford Central Office Building, Michigan Avenue and Southfield Road.

THOUSANDS OF Model A parts ranging from valve springs to hub caps were bought, sold and traded in a circus tent "flea market" which opened at dawn and would close when the last dedicated restorer had found the Ford script wrench, scroll rumble lid handle or handbrake button he's been searching for to complete his "new" car.

The equally dedicated - and perhaps even more patient - wives of the restorers were treated to a tea and fashion show featuring clothes of "then and now" at Lovett Hall in Greenfield Village Friday afternoon. A buffet dinner at the Village was to end the day's program.

Saturday's schedule featured a parade of Model A's along I-94 from Dearborn to Metropolitan Airport. MARC members and their families visited a display of aircraft at Detroit Metropolitan Airport, including one of the last remaining Ford Tri - motor airplanes which that was flown in from Sandusky, Ohio. Dinner was in the Ford Research and Engineering Center Skyline Cafeteria.

HIGHLIGHT OF the meet was a competition last Sunday afternoon at Greenfield Village. Owners and their cars vied for ribbons and trophies in a number of special events, including moving displays and costume judging.

Although the meet officially closed Sunday evening, some 50 cars participated in the first Model A "Grand Tour" through Michigan Monday through Thursday.

Drivers assembled Monday morning for breakfast in Northville, hosted by the John Mack Ford dealership. After a tour of the Ford Northville Valve Plant, the group moved northward via I-96 and U.S. 23 under state police escort to Pinconning for a luncheon sponsored by Bernard Whyte Ford Sales Inc.

Monday afternoon they continued north on U.S. 23 to Oscoda, the first overnight stop, to be greeted by Karl Weisl of S & S Lincoln - Mercury - Ford. Tuesday morning, Weisl escorted the party to Wurtsmith Air Force Base, where base commander Col. Benjamin F. DeHaan planned breakfast at the Officers' Club followed by a tour of the base.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON the Model A's paraded through Rogers City, after a luncheon at Jerry Lynch Motor Sales. The party will spend the night in Mackinaw City.

Wednesday the MARC members and their antique Fords began the return trip on I-75, stopping in Grayling for lunch hosted by Bill Hart Ford, Inc. The party were guests of Harvey - Francke Ford in Saginaw for the last night on the road.

Luncheon at the Vabarian Inn in Frankenmuth on Thursday marked the end of the "grand tour," and the Model A's will begin their journey homeward for another year of waxing and buffing in preparation for the 1969 national meet.

Big Job is Still Ahead on County Supervisor's Issue

DETROIT — Voters in the August primary cast ballots for members of the Wayne County legislative body for the first time. To add further confusion to something that is already jumbled in the mind of the average voter, members of the county board of supervisors elected in the Aug. 6 primary and the coming November general election may be only temporary office-holders.

At the same time the new 26-member board of supervisors is elected in November, voters will pass judgment in a proposition to make Wayne County a home rule county, which could be the first step toward eliminating the board of supervisors altogether.

Home rule means, in essence, the county takes on many aspects of a city: It would have a charter, an elected chief executive and a county commission corresponding to a city council.

As presently organized, the county is a creature of the state legislature, requiring legislative approval to finance and carry out most of its services. Under home rule as a charter county the county commission could restructure the maze of semi-autonomous county agencies, offices, boards and commissions; have greater freedom in deciding types and levels of county services, and obtain greater revenue from an increased tax levy.

Movements to secure county home rule in Michigan date back to 1934. Presently, 24 states provide for some form of charter county government. Michigan's 1963 constitution provided for charter counties, and the legislature passed enabling legislation in 1966 which put the constitutional provision into effect.

In February of this year the Citizens Committee of 99, a countywide group appointed by the board of supervisors, submitted a 65-page report which recommended the supervisors put a home rule proposition on the ballot.

Part of the Committee of 99's criticism of the present system was eliminated shortly after the committee report was issued, when the attorney general issued an order that supervisors be elected rather than appointed. As a result, voters will face a paradox at the polls in November. They will elect 26 members of the board of supervisors, vote Yes or No on the home rule proposition and elect 35 members of a county charter commission. If the home rule question passes, the charter commission will prepare a county charter, which will probably be laid out for voter approval in February. Approval of the charter and implementation of home rule would force an election for county commissioners, who would then replace the supervisors.

The charter commission has significant discretion in the kind of charter it recommends to the people. The chief executive, for example, may be a powerful figure or a subordinate one, as in strong mayor and city manager forms of city government.

Those who advocate going the home rule route generally point to nine advantages of charter counties:

1) Opportunity for people to choose the type and structure of local government which they wish to meet local needs.

2) A substantially integrated county government instead of loosely connected and independent officers and boards.

3) Responsible leadership through a single, county executive.

4) A relatively small legislative body of active members (The charter commission could establish the number of county commissioners anywhere from five to 35 members.)

5) Unification of duplicated functions in the county by public vote on mutually agreeable terms.

6) Improvement in the performance of county services.

7) Adequate financing means to sustain county programs.

8) Adequate county authority to meet responsibilities in matters of local concern.

Insurance Firm Lists Features

HOWELL — The Citizens Mutual Insurance Company of Howell has announced a "Non-Cancellable" Solid Citizen and Featureama personal automobile policy. The new non-cancellable feature becomes effective immediately, President Roy A. Westran added.

Michigan law allows an insurance company considerable leeway in cancelling an automobile policy. First, a company has 55 days in which a new policyholder may be rejected. After the 55-day period, among the provisions of the law allowing the company to cancel are:

The policyholder has failed to pay the premium; violated the terms of the policy; failed to disclose fully his accident and traffic violation record; failed to disclose material information needed for proper rating; does not reside at the address indicated; made a false or fraudulent claim; becomes subject to certain physical disabilities; had his license suspended; or is convicted of or forfeits bail for a serious traffic charge.

Citizens, a 53-year-old Michigan corporation, was one of the first companies to use limited cancellation even before the legislature enacted the present law. Now Citizens has gone one step further. After the initial 55-day period, a Citizens' policyholder faces cancellation only if (1) he has failed to pay the premium, or (2) the license of any owner or operator of the automobile has been revoked or suspended.

One of Michigan's most progressive insurance companies, Citizens believes in serving the policyholder. The company's president Roy Westran said, "We believe that our policyholders will like this new approach. Pay your premium, keep your license to drive, and you need not worry about the cancellation problem."

Luther W. Youngdahl Speaker At State Fair Sunrise Service

Judge Luther W. Youngdahl, senior member of the U.S. District Court in Washington, D.C., will be the speaker at the 18th annual Sunrise Service on Religion Day at the 119th Michigan State Fair, which runs from Friday, Aug. 23, through Monday, Sept. 2.

The announcement was made by E.J. "Jeff" Keirns, State Fair general manager, and Dr. Robert L. Kincheloe, executive director of the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches, co-sponsor of the Sunrise Service.

Religion Day will be Sunday, Aug. 25, with the Service at 8 a.m.

Worshippers will be admitted free to the Fairgrounds until that time.

JUDGE YOUNGDAHL was speaker for the first State Fair Sunrise Service in 1951 when he was governor of Minnesota and again in 1953 and 1965. He has been one of the most popular of the long list of speakers at the Sunrise Service which annually attracts up to 10,000 persons.

Judge Youngdahl became a senior U.S. District Judge in 1966 on his 70th birthday and has since served by assignment in the U.S. District Courts of San Diego and San Francisco, Calif.

A native of Minnesota, Youngdahl received his law degree from the Minnesota College of Law in 1921 and later was Assistant Dean of that college.

He became a municipal judge in 1930 and rose through bench until he was elected to the Minnesota Supreme Court in 1942. He resigned in 1946 to run for governor, winning three terms.

Judge Youngdahl always has been known as a great champion of youth and unrelenting spokesman for justice and humanity. He is a national director of the Big Brothers, an organization which helps fatherless boys; has served actively with the YMCA, Boy Scouts, PTA, and the National Council on Crime and Delinquency.

HE HAS received a long list of awards, including the Grand Cross of the Royal Order of the North Star, presented by King Gustaf V of Sweden; the Finnish Order of the Lion; honorary degrees from 15 colleges and universities; awards from the Boy Scouts, PTA, the Big Brothers, and the Washington Federation of Churches.

He was named the Outstanding Citizen of Minnesota (in 1947) and received the Outstanding Achievement Award of the University of Minnesota (in 1962).

Judge Youngdahl was appointed to the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia in 1951, and has served on numerous bar association and judicial committees.

Film Scheduled

Wayne State University's Cinema Guild will present the children's film classic "The Horror of Dracula" at 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 17, in the Helen L. DeRoy Auditorium on Wayne's campus. Admission is free.

The film is part of a summer series for children on Saturday afternoons. Later showing will include "Davey Crockett - King of the Wild Frontier" (Aug. 24) and "The Three Worlds of Gulliver" (Aug. 31). Cartoons are also featured.

Royal Treatment Awaits The 'Family of the Year'

The "Family of the Year" will be honored at the 119th Michigan State Fair, which opens Friday, Aug. 23, and runs through Monday, Sept. 2 (Labor Day).

E. J. (Jeff) Keirns, State Fair general manager, said the family will receive gifts and be feted on Family Day at the fair, Friday, Aug. 30.

The largest family in attendance at the fair that day will be chosen. Those competing will be required to provide birth certificates or other forms of identification for the children.

Registration will be at the Community Arts Building between 10 and 11 a.m. that day. In the event of a tie, a drawing will determine the winning family, which will be announced at noon.

THE FAMILY will become the guests of the State Fair for the day. Members will receive gifts from Consumers Power Co., Unique Zippers, Personality Plus, Inc., Michigan Bell Telephone Co., and will participate in a fashion show courtesy of Montgomery Ward. The gifts will be presented in cooperation with the State Fair Community Arts Department.

In addition, the family will receive a plaque, dinner on the Fairgrounds, and free admission to all Midway shows and rides.

They will be special guests at the 8 p.m. Grandstand show, featuring the State Fair Aerial Spectacular, with trapeze and highwire artists, swaying-pole performers, and a human cannonball.

Special status also will be accorded the family at the 3 p.m. Music Shell show, which will star Arthur Godfrey, the radio and television personality. Later, they will meet Godfrey and The Cowbells, the singing family which is also on the Music Shell program that day.

GREEN BERETS - Action, and adventure makes up the BIG Twin Coule Screen Program now at the Willow Drive In Theatre. John Wayne stars in "The Green Berets", and James Stewart shares honors with Henry Fonda in the western adventure "Firecreek".

There's a New 'Horizon' At Greenfield Village

DEARBORN - An Easterner's view of the old west forms the framework for both comedy and melodrama in the most recent offering of the Greenfield Village Players at the American Drama Festival in the Henry Ford Museum Theatre.

Romance also plays a part in "Horizon," the stageplay that most critics consider the best of many plays penned or adapted by noted playwright Augustin Daly in the second half of the 19th century.

Two other Daly scripts, "Needles and Pins" and "Under the Gaslight," plus Joseph Jefferson's version of "Rip Van Winkle" have been rotating in repertory during the past few weeks.

"Horizon" completes the schedule for the 1968 American Drama Festival season, which continues through Sept. 14.

THE REPERTORY schedule is so arranged that starting Aug. 19, theatre-goers can see a different program on any four consecutive nights or on the same night of the week for four consecutive weeks.

The newest arrival, "Horizon," first opened at the Olympic Theatre in New York on March 21, 1871. The satire begins immediately as three members of New York society and an English gentleman decide to travel to the western horizon, feeling certain that if they are bothered by Indians they can merely call a policeman.

The curtain rises at the American Drama Festival at 8:30 nightly except Sundays. Tickets are available at the door as well as at J.L. Hudson's downtown and four other Hudson locations, plus Grinnell's and the Dearborn and Greenfield Village tourist information booths.

Adult tickets are $1.75, children 75 cents. A group discount is also available on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

For additional information and play schedules, write or telephone the Advertising and Promotion Department, Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, Dearborn, Michigan 48124. The telephone number is 271-1620, Ext. 245.

FRANK UPTON
BELLEVILLE --- Frank Upton of Belleville, veteran showman, has been appointed vice-president and general manager of the Music Hall, Detroit.

Upton, who resides at 43475 Expressway, resigned the post of Divisional Manager of Trans-Beacon Corporation to assume his new duties at Music Hall.

He announced that Music Hall, which for many years was operated as a Cinerama Theater by Trans-Beacon prior to its closing in October, 1968, and operations taken over by the Summit Theater, will again present reserve seat attractions.

Music Hall will reopen with "The Lion in Winter," costarring Katherine Hepburn and Peter O'Toole.

Upton is well known in the theater profession. He was assistant general manager of Cinerama and prior to this was supervisor with the United Detroit Theatres. Mervyn Gaskin is president of the new Music Hall operation.

Park Dance

Lee Castle and the Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra will highlight a Dance Special when he appears at the open-air dance pavilion at Metropolitan Beach along Lake St. Clair near Mt. Clemens, on Sunday, Aug. 18, at 8:30 P.M.

There is no charge for dancing except the usual 50-cent fee.

The following dress regulations apply during orchestra dance nights: Women should wear blouses and skirts or dresses and men should wear a shirt and slacks, however, ties are not required.

For additional information, phone HO 3-4581 or WO 3-3022.

College Lists New Piano, Voice Class

Class instruction in piano and voice, in which students are required to participate by performing before their classmates, has been added to the Mercy College of Detroit curriculum for the new school year which opens Aug. 26.

Class instruction is not new, of course, but the insistence on participation as a performer is expected to make textbook work more effective.

By design, classes will be restricted in numbers to retain the effect of personalized instruction.

Classes are for beginning students or those who have had primary instruction. Later the class concept may be extended to more advanced students. Registration for the new college year is Friday, Aug. 23, with classes scheduled to start Aug. 26.

Belleville's BBB Warns of Con-men, Dishonest Deals

(Editor's Note: Complaints of false sale pitches and dishonest work performances have been aired by area residents to the Better Business Bureau division of the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce. Executive Director of the Chamber Ted F. Kuckelman relates some of con-men methods in the following comments.)

I was taken," sobs the victim. "He was such a nice young man. He seemed so honest?" says one caller, still amazed. "How could this happen to me?"

How, indeed? In some cases, the law is on the side of the robber. We will treat this subject later. In some cases the unsuspecting public almost deserves to be taken, Theodore F. Kuckelman, Belleville's Better Business Manager, disclosed.

"They sign contracts without reading them, they accept a stranger's statement at the door to be gospel, they turn their backs on an honest businessman, who offers an honest service at an honest price and quickly grab the 'bargain' that's represented at half of what they actually end up paying and its worth considerably less than half to begin with," Kuckelman said in alerting area residents.

"Fall literally brings the con-men out," Kuckelman told the Enterprise-Roman. "People around town begin signing up for 'free' books and end up paying for them for years to come. They buy something that is represented to be on an 'at cost' basis just to introduce it to the neighborhood. They sign contracts without reading the fine print or adding up the total payments, and come to us afterwards - when it's often too late, to say what did I do?"

Some examples: PEOPLE COME around in the fall with "roof-treating" gimmicks. The "treatment" will prolong the life of your shingles... maybe even make them last a lifetime.

The price is so small, you almost feel ashamed of yourself for taking advantage of the guy! "I'm just one small person" he tells you, "trying to make an honest living." You think, "How much profit can there really be in $12?" You say, "well, go ahead." He's got your confidence now. He's poor-but-honest and by the time he gets up on the roof you've even reached your neighbor on the phone to tell her about this poor sap and what price she can have her roof treated for. "Just a minute" you say, "he's back at the door." The poor guy is wringing his hands. He's all broken up. You hate to ask what's wrong. And more important whatever it is... you know for sure it's true, because he's so shook up about it. Poor-but-honest.

"VIOLATIONS!" he cries, "Your chimney will never stand up! Your life is in danger. Lucky I came along. If the Fire Department ever saw your roof they'd condemn your house!" You can't afford to do anything about it. But here's this man who can maybe do it for you cheaper. "Sure I know how, I've done quite a few of 'em. Listen, not everybody's a millionaire. Not everybody can afford to call in some big home improvement company to rebuild half their roof."

Everybody wishes they had, reminisced Kuckelman, after they've been fleeced by Mr. Poor-but-honest.

A bank loan is quickly arranged and materials are delivered with Olympic-speed. The chimney is torn down without the owner ever having gone upstairs to see what the actual violation is. The roof is rebuilt, all right. You never did get it treated, but you suddenly owe the bank $2000.

Suspicion never dawns on you until the trash man knocks on your door and says, "I notice you're throwing away all those old shingles and bricks in perfect condition. I wonder if I can have them?"

It was only a switch on the old furnace-cleaners-and inspectors GAG.

APPLIANCE REPAIRS and automotive repairs are another big item on the easy-money boys' list. In some instances, it doesn't matter if they steal and it costs you twice as much to regains damages as it would have if you'd paid the extreme costs and taken it on the chin in the first place. Here's the way it works.

Your car is making a little noise and everyone who hears it says it's the "timing." You take it to a gas station that looks good, but you don't bother to check with the Chamber of Commerce or the Better Business Bureau (usually they work together).

Your only thought at the moment is that you won't take it to "one of those" factory - authorized services that is usually a part of new car dealership and which specializes in the care of your particular car. You're not going to dish out that extra money to "those people" for labor. You'll take it to a little guy. Poor-but-honest.

"How much to fix my timing?" you ask. "Timing chain for this little model runs about 16 bucks" he estimates. "Okay. Call me when it's ready." That'll show 'em at the legal garages. Who needs to check with BBB? This place is right in town, isn't it? Just what can he do to you? Anything he pleases.

THE LONG-AWAITED call comes and you get that neighbor (the one who almost got stuck with the roof job you recommended) to take you down. You get out of her car with the $16 in your little hand.

BUT THE BILL IS $79.50!!!! You almost need the resuscitation squad. You consider the Police. You rush home and call a lawyer.

"He didn't mention the labor originally! He said when he took it apart he couldn't replace the timing chain without replacing the gears. He found it needed a starter, too. He even put in new spark plugs, and my husband had put in a set of them just a week before. I didn't authorize all that!"

"Pay him." "I want to sue!" "Pay him."

YOU CAN hire the attorney and get a writ of replevin. But you also have to post a cash amount in twice the value of your vehicle. If it's a $200 vehicle, you have to leave $400 with the court until the case is settled. If you want to put up your home as collateral and post a bond instead, the bond will cost you more money. And there are such considerations as the attorney's fees and court costs and the Sheriff who serves the Mechanic, and on and on.

"I'll just go over there and drive it out."

"You can't. His parts are in it, and you'd be stealing the parts."

"But he's stealing my car!"

"No he isn't. He's just storing it until you pay for it. He can charge you for the storage, by the way. And as long as his parts are in it, he's got an automatic Mechanic's Lien on it. And to add insult to injury, if you step foot on his property, you're guilty of a technical trespass."

"Well what can I do?"

"Pay him."

"The consumer... the victim... the dolt who does things the easy way... the cheater... smarter way... begins to wonder just whose side the law is on."

"On the side of the people who do things the right way in the first place" is what they say.

"On the side of the guy who takes the trouble to get it in writing. On the side of the folks who take the trouble to look into a thing thoroughly. If they weren't looking for something for nothing in the first place, they would've gotten a square deal from some business-man who's been right here in town all his life."

SURE, THEY'D have paid for his labor. But they would've gotten his good and honest guarantee right along with it. It would have been an honest, no-problem job and everybody would have been happy."

"We're only as far as your telephone" adds Kuckelman. "A call to the Chamber of Commerce and the Better Business Bureau will quickly ascertain whether the people are honest and known locally. Ten cents can save you thousands of dollars," Kuckelman suggests.

Read the small print. Investigate. Call the Better Business Bureau. The honest caller won't object at all.

Ask for credentials. Get it in writing. Add up the total figures before you sign your contract.

Buy on the defensive. Expect to get cheated. Make your caller prove you're wrong. ... before you really are.

BEFORE PLANNERS AGAIN

Hearing on McMullan Point Rezoning Petition is Aug. 21

BELLEVILLE — A public hearing on a new request for the rezoning of 147 acres of land known as McMullan Point, Van Buren Township, will be held at made by Raspberry, supported by Wegienka, that the Township Board follow the same procedure as in the past and as stated tonight in the manner in which citizens would file their complaints. Motion carried unanimously.

Meeting adjourned by 12:00 A.M. by Chairman Bizek. Respectfully submitted, Alfred J. Perry, Clerk Township of Romulus

I, Alfred J. Perry, Clerk of the Township of Romulus, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the minutes of the Regular Meeting of the Romulus Township Board, held on August 5, 1968, in the Township Hall.

APPROVED: Alfred J. Perry, Clerk Edmund Bizek, Supervisor

Van Buren Township Hall, Aug. 21 at 8 p.m.

The petition, the second filed by the land owner, Dearborn Developer Frank Volk, Sr., seeks a rezoning from single residential classification to multiple residential for multiple housing units.

An earlier request for rezoning that had been approved by the Van Buren Township Planning Commission, Township Board and Wayne County Planners brought objections from area residents and members of the Van Buren Civic Association.

A referendum vote May 7, resulted in a voters' rejection of the proposed apartment project that called for the construction of 2,000 dwelling units, nine-hole golf course, swimming pools and tennis courts for the site.

Volk through his counsel has filed a second petition for rezoning the 147 acres fronting Belleville Lake and located between Denton and Beckley Road and bordering the north side of I-94 Expressway. The project's construction was to be over a five to 10 year period.

At the Aug. 21 hearing, it expected that Volk will present a modified or alternate plans to meet previous objections.

NDC Gives $100,000 For Books

DETROIT--The New Detroit Committee announced a grant of $100,000 to provide 14,000 inner city sixth-grade students with their own textbooks in basic academic subjects. The children will have the books when schools open in September.

Lynn A. Townsend, chairman of NDC's Education Subcommittee, said the grant is in support of a request from Detroit Public Schools and in line with guidelines set up by the study report issued last June by the Detroit High School Study Commission.

Townsend said the textbook project affects 117 schools classified as disadvantaged in the report.

"This is a step in the right direction," he said.

It is hoped that this would also serve as a vehicle to encourage the community as a whole and other sources to provide adequate funds in improving educational facilities at all inner city public schools.

Arthur Johnson, deputy superintendent of the Detroit Public Schools, and chairman of New Detroit Committee's Youth, Recreation and Cultural Activities, said the sixth grade was selected because the textbooks would help the students prepare more adequately for junior high school studies.

The commission's report stated in grades one through eight in Detroit, there is one textbook for every two pupils. This leaves the responsibility on the pupil to buy his own book if he is to have the advantage of personal possession for reference and study outside of the classroom.

Currently, there are over 100,000 children in grades one through eight in the school attendance area which are classified by the Federal Elementary Secondary Education Act as disadvantaged. This lack of adequate textbooks for every student has not only adversely affected the school program during the day, but has prevented students from meaningfully benefiting from home study.

Johnson announced a New Detroit Committee grant of $10,000 to support a Wayne State University project designed to demonstrate the use of Negro history and culture as a means of changing interracial attitudes. A Federal grant of $36,780 has been made, subject to securing matching funds. The NDC grant will assist Wayne State in meeting the fund matching requirement, Johnson said.

Leader Dogs Needed for The Blind

ROCHESTER--Leader Dogs for the Blind here graduated 165 Leader Dogs with their masters during the last 12-month period. To graduate them, it was necessary to check nearly 1,000 family pets offered for the training program.

Anyone having a dog that might qualify for Leader Dog training is asked to write - Leader Dogs for the Blind, Rochester, Mich.

A Leader Dog must accept responsibility and be completely friendly to people. It usually helps if a dog has been raised in a family where there are children so it is used to being with people. The dog must be "trainable", and it must like to ride in automobiles.

Tests show a dog shy or timid, afraid of noise and confusion, reluctant to meet strangers will not pass the training program. People using Leader Dogs face all sorts of traffic conditions and confusing situations.

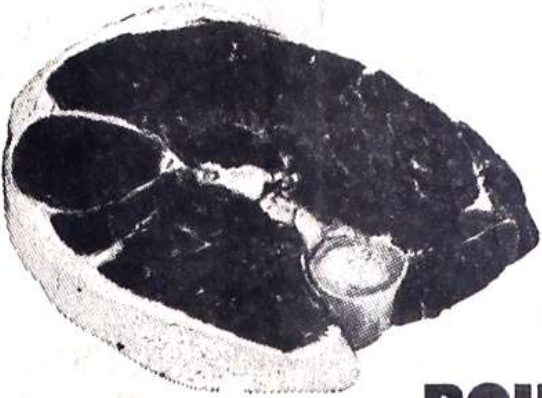

The Leader Dog School is using German Shepherds, Labrador and Golden Retrievers from one year to 30 months of age. They must be at least 22 inches in height at the shoulders but not more than 26 inches. They must be in good physical condition because the training program is a concentrated effort of four months.

Students are accepted from all over the United States and Canada, as well as Mexico and several South American countries.

There is no charge for the service. The school is supported by Michigan United Fund, Lions Clubs and other groups and individuals.

Michigan State University has the reigning national championship mathematics team for the third time in the past seven years. MSU has finished in the top 10 seven times since first entering the Putnam Mathematical Competition in 1959.

"ANCHORS AWEIGH" — 'Tis the season when Belleville and Edison Lake are dotted with boats of all sizes and shapes from the tiny rafts and canoes to deluxe type Chrysler live-aboard powerboats. While the warm weather has a tendency to crowd lakes and rivers boating buffs should be up to date on safety rules and regulations. Like on the crowded automobile highways alert safe driving is a must.

3 Kittens Rescued by Barking Dog

VISITORS — Underneath the hood of a car is an unusual abode for three recently born kittens but that is where Mrs. George Shough of 41420 Savage Road, found the above kittens last Friday. The mother was nowhere to be found. How and when the kittens were placed under the hood is unknown but it was reported that mother cats do hide their young in most unusual places. The car is owned by James Ward of Ypsilanti, who arrived from Ypsilanti the day the kittens were discovered.

BELLEVILLE — The barking of the family pet "Tippy," a german shepherd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Shough, 41420 Savage Road, Friday, Aug. 9, led to the discovery and rescue of three mysteriously arrived visitors.

The visitors were three kittens, about three weeks old, found under the hood of an automobile owned by Harold James Ward of Ypsilanti and left at the Slough's residence for the day.

"Our dog kept barking around the car while we were busy in our yard," Mrs. Slough said "the dog's insistent barking prompted us to check over the car carefully. To our amazement we discovered the baby kittens under the hood of the car and alongside the motor and right fender."

How the kittens got there no one could tell. The Wards or Sloughs have no cats. Whether the mother cat put them there before the Wards left Ypsilanti or while the car was parked at the Slough's home, No one knows.

OK Nursing Home Again

BELLEVILLE — The Van Buren Planning Commission last Wednesday (Aug. 7) upheld a previous decision recommending rezoning of 10 acres of land, located at the southeast corner of Beck and Tyler Roads, for the construction of a Nursing Home, Mrs. Erma Jean Payne, commission secretary, reported. The Planning Commission was asked by the Township Board at its meeting July 23, to further study the rezoning petition filed by the land owner, Gaspare Coccimiglio of Dearborn.

The Board acted when objections were filed by officials of the airport and members of Michigan Aeronautics Commission, in a disclosure of an expansion program for the Willow Run Airport.

Following the Aug. 7 hearing, the planners reported that they would stand by their earlier decision and again referred back to the Township Board a recommendation approving a change from light industry to multiple dwelling to permit construction of the Nursing Home.

The Commission's action (four members present) was unanimous, Mrs. Payne reported.

She said that the planners considered the added tax base that the construction of the nursing home would offer the township instead of waiting for the proposed development of the airport that was several years hence.

Deer, Turkey Permits Time Set

Michigan hunters must wait until early September to apply for permits offered under this fall's antlerless deer and wild turkey seasons, the Conservation Department reported.

By that time, the Department hopes to have completed distribution of 1968 big game and small game hunting licenses and special application forms for antlerless deer permits to license dealers throughout the state.

Without these licenses, neither would-be turkey or antlerless deer hunters can apply for permits. Both groups of sportsmen must first buy their appropriate 1968 licenses whose numbers must be included on their permit applications.

BESIDES MEETING this requirement, applicants for antlerless deer permits must use the special forms which will carry their premarked license numbers.

Those seeking turkey hunting permits will be required to enter their 1968 small game license numbers on U.S. Government postcards, which will serve as their entry forms.

Nearly 179,000 permits will be available for antlerless deer hunting which will run concurrently with the regular firearm deer season from Nov. 15 through Nov. 30 in 56 problem areas of the state. A total of 1,500 permits will be offered for the wild turkey season which is scheduled for the Nov. 1-10 period in the Baldwin and Mio areas.

Muskies are about a foot long.

From Eyes and Years No Finer Friend

By ROBERT WEBSTER

Sometime ago I wrote an article describing the visit a group of us paid to an old gentleman of nearly 80 years of age. Still straight in body, with a very keen mind, I found him to be a fascinating individual. With the exception of a nephew, he is the sole survivor of his family. In spite of this, he is wholeheartedly enjoying life, having many visitors.

For about 60 years he had been the leader of a three-piece orchestra which he had inherited from his father. He played the violin, his brother Tom the bass and his sister Vina the piano. After he married, his wife, Tillie, became the pianist. They were well known as Campbell's String Orchestra all the way from Detroit to Toronto.

Although they were successful, their primary consideration was not financial gain, but rather enjoyment of the beautiful music they created and meeting of thousands of friends and admirers through the years.

It was not uncommon for them to furnish their music without any payment for weddings and receptions when the young couple being married was somewhat short, financially speaking. They also had quite a reputation as a vocal trio, including many numbers commonly called Negro Spirituals, in their repertoire.

But now, for several years, he had neglected his violin and piano. However, we persuaded him to play for us and it was amazing. He reminded me of the artistic genius who could take worn-out brushes and inferior paints and produce a masterpiece.

Can you imagine a bow with only about ten strands of horsehair left, with the rest all broken and dangling from both ends of the bow? Besides this, he had no resin for his bow. In spite of the handicaps, you should have heard the beautiful music he produced. Practically every key was out of tune on the piano. Fortunately, there was a talented pianist among us and between her and the old gentleman they were able to overcome all the handicaps and we started on a real do-it-yourself evening's entertainment. We were able to dig up a lead, tenor, alto and bass, with yours truly doing the basement part. We really had a time of it, singing and playing such old favorites as "Rambling Rose," "Cheatin' Heart," "Char-maine," "Drifting Down The River". Afterward we swung to such oldtimers as "Smile The While," "Let The Rest Of The World Go By," "You Are My Sunshine," "Moonlight Bay," and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart".

Then our host sat down at the piano and began to play softly and reverently, "He's Got The Whole World In His Hands." As I watched his face, his eyes were closed and his countenance was lighted. He seemed to be feeling what he was playing. Gradually we all joined in, taking our various parts. This number was the real hit of the evening.

There is a sequel to this simple little story. About two weeks ago the same group visited the same home over in Canada. There were some differences. There was resin, the bow had been restrung and the piano was now in tune. Here are just a few of the old melodies we played and sang "School Days," "Somebody Else Is Taking My Place," "Put Your Arms Around Me Honey," "Alice Blue Gown," "Sunny Side Of The Street," "I'm Feeling Blue When It Rains" and "Heart Of My Heart."

We were all Caucasians, with the exception of our host, who is a Negro. He tells me his father, Charles Campbell, was a runaway slave and a friend and intimate of Josiah Henson, who was the model for Uncle Tom in "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Mr. Campbell tells me he was taught in an integrated school and in all his lifetime has no remembrance of ever having his feelings hurt by a white person. This one individual has probably done more to further good race relations than a trainload of Rap Browns and Stokeley Carmichaels, and I am proud to be his friend.

PICTURE PERFECT—Two pictures can dramatize the space over the couch better than the usual one large picture. The scenes need not be the same in this instance, but a matching tonal quality is recommended so that one picture will not dominate the other. It is also well to complement the framing with the base and shade of a nearby lamp to complete a "unit" effect. Greenery can be used to advantage with a long picture filling a "lost" wall space (see picture below). A console cabinet or table, and a large picture to balance the grouping can serve to relieve the "heaviness" of a large lounge chair standing away from a corner or wall. To further create a lighter effect, the chair covering could pick up the shades in the picture. (Picture groupings courtesy of W.L. Gates Furniture, Wdne).

Boaters Should Carry All Lifesaving Devices

CLEVELAND — Of the 40 million boaters getting underway this boating season, too many of them — because of their own thoughtlessness — will never return.

The reason?
Many will forget to carry lifesaving devices on board.

Others will forget where they stowed them or when to use them.

The Coast Guard reminds boatmen that carrying the devices in a hard-to-reach area of the boat does not provide sufficient protection. Accidents can happen anytime, and afterward may be too late to go looking for something to keep you afloat.

Also, if something happens to your boat, stay with it. Most boats will float when overturned or swamped. By remaining with the boat, you will be easier to find by rescuers.

AFTER EVERY PERFORMANCE of the world famous US Navy's "Blue Angels", the question comes often. Where do these skillful pilots come from who keep thousands breathless as they perform their precision aerial maneuvers while flying in formation seldom over six feet between wingtips at speeds over 500 miles per hour.

The Blue Angels consist of eight pilots, one naval flight officer, and 45 enlisted personnel comprising the Navy's Flight Demonstration Team.

Four of the pilots fly in the diamond formation while two pilots fly solo as maximum performance demonstrators. The seventh pilot is the narrator for the aerial demonstration and provides jet orientation flights for members of the press.

The engineering officer, who is in charge of the maintenance crew, is the eighth pilot and flies the Blue Angels' C-121 transport. The naval flight officer is the team's public affairs officer.

The 45 enlisted personnel assigned to the Blue Angels maintain all the aircraft in top-notch condition. These men are selected from a long list of volunteers through an extensive screening process, which includes a one-month evaluation period prior to being assigned to the team. The maintenance personnel of the Blue Angels represents the finest technicians to be found in the Navy.

The mission of the Blue Angels is to demonstrate precision techniques of Naval aviation to Naval personnel and, as directed, to the public. One of the main functions of the team is to interest young men in Naval aviation and is accomplished, in part, by the team members making personal appearances on radio, television and at various civic events.

The Blue Angel officer is a regular Navy or Marine Corps officer, between the ages of 26 and 36, who has many hours of flight time to his credit. His selection to the team depends on many factors. He is one of the healthiest young men in the world. He must be able to fly exceptionally well, have the qualities of congeniality and adaptability necessary to live with his teammates for long periods of time without creating friction or dissension, and always be able to represent the Navy as an "Ambassador of Good Will" wherever the commitments of the team may take him.

At all times he must exemplify the outstanding Naval officer in personal appearance, personality, behavior, and in dealing with others. He must be highly motivated to fly, capable of withstanding long grueling practices and road shows, demonstrate an unflinching good nature, and be able to express himself well on all subjects pertinent to Naval aviation on radio and television shows and in personal appearances.

The normal tour of duty for an officer with the Blue Angels is from one to three years, with pilots generally returning to a jet squadron in either the Atlantic or Pacific Fleets upon completion of this tour.

A qualified aviator or Naval flight officer who desires to join the "Blues" first must submit an application with letters of recommendation from his previous commanding officers. This application is then filed by the Blue Angels for future consideration in the selection of new members.

When a vacancy exists, all the applications are reviewed, personal interviews are conducted as required, and the officer best qualified to fill the available position is selected. During his tour, the Blue Angel pilot will perform all the maneuvers taught to military aviators, only with greater precision.

As he learns he becomes a more integral part of the team which demonstrates the degree of perfection and professional competence which all

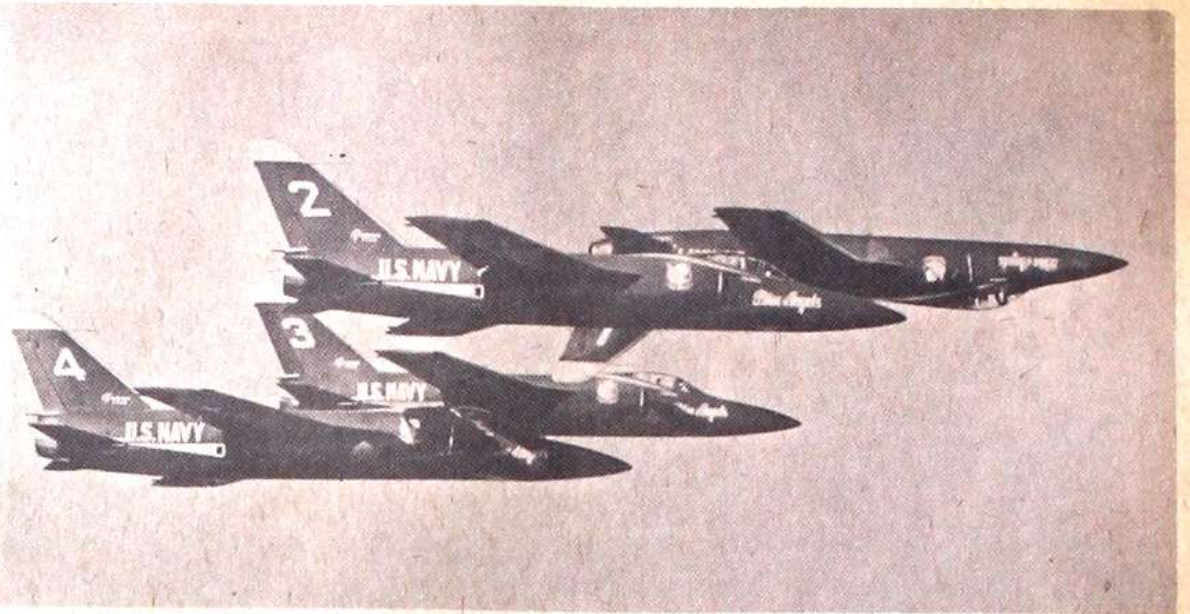

Naval aviators must attain. A position on the Blue Angel team is not an "easy billet". The Blue Angels are on the road for 10 months out of the year. This especially includes weekends and holiday operations when most air shows and civic events take place around the nation. They average about 21 days per month away from home.

Many hours of practice are absolutely necessary to maintain the high degree of precision demanded by this type of flying. The feeling about being one of the Blue Angels team is best expressed by an inevitable statement often given by departing members, "It was a great experience being a Blue Angel".

The US Navy's Blue Angels will highlight the nation's biggest air event of the year at nearby Willow Run Airport on Sept. 14-15 when the Michigan Aeronautics and Space Association will sponsor the National Aviation and Space Exposition Air and Space Show.

They will perform their precision aerobatics on both days of the show during the three-hour flight portion of the day event.

Blue Angels: The Sky's Elite

FLAWLESS PRECISION FLYING — Perfect example why every member of the Blue Angels team has to be of the highest caliber. The team is shown here in one of their routine breathtaking maneuvers as they pass in review in a tight formation with wings tips only six feet apart at speeds over 500 miles per hour while their leader flies his jet upside-down. This maneuver will be demonstrated in their program during the air show at Willow Run.

Upsets, Surprises In Romulus Tennis Tourney

ROMULUS — Plenty of surprises in the form of upsets highlighted the annual Romulus Open Tennis Tournament last week as some 50 contestants battled for the city net crown.

It all started with Alan Rafalski who, after dropping his first set, 3-6, to friend and neighbor, Don Makowski, came back and picked up the second 6-0 to force a showdown for the 13-year-old and under bracket.

Alan then proceeded to win the decisive match 7-5 to capture the title.

Meanwhile, in the 14-and-under group, Wayne's Jim Law turned back Rafalski and advanced to meet Don Makowski and whipped his opponent in two sets of 6-3 to earn the title in that category.

The boys 18 and under class was dominated by Jim's brother, John, also a Wayne Memorial High student. In the quarter-round, Tom Fioritti, of Taylor, Michigan, defeated Bob Selle, 6-1, 6-0, while Gary Selle disposed of Dennis Wessels, 5-7, 6-2 and 9-7.

Woody Barker won on a default from Howard Meyers and John Law turned back Pat Tutas in two sets of 6-0.

Advancing to the semi-finals,

Fioritti ousted Gary Selle via a default and Law eliminated Woody Barker in a pair of 6-1 sets.

Law and Fioritti clashed in the final round and, after a bitter battle, won 7-5 and 9-7 to claim the title.

Surprises in the men's singles saw a near upset as Law held Andy Kozarian, an ANP All-Area selection in check most of the way, finally yielding 6-2 and 6-0 as the Romulus netter couldn't get into high gear and made costly errors.

In the quarter-finals, Kozarian defeated Bob Shamah, a visitor from California while Dennis Wessel downed Jim Foley in three sets of 3-6, 6-2 and 6-4.

John Law then ousted Tom Fioritti in a thriller, 4-6, 6-2 and 6-2.

Woody Barker clashed with the Reverend Larry Johnson with the latter coming up with a 6-0 first set victory, then surrendering 4-6 but regaining his poise for a 6-0 finale to win his match.

Kozarian tripped up Wessel in the semis 6-4, 6-1 while Law went the distance with Rev. Johnson 6-4, 4-6 and 8-6 to qualify for the finals.

Also coming up with some surprises of their own were the gals who waged their own war for title rights. In the quarter-finals, Deborah Zol defeated Theresa Perry in a pair of sets 6-0 and 6-2 while Nancy Nowitske downed Loyola Foisie through default in the third set.

In other matches, Marlene Kadau turned back Dawn Kozarian in two sets of 6-3 and Hamtramck's Betty Kazen trounced Muriel Boelter in sets of 7-5 and 6-0.

With the pressure on Miss Zol met Nowitske in the semi-finals and qualified for the finals after a 6-1 6-3 verdict over her rival, and Miss Kazen defeated Miss Kadau in 6-0, 6-0, fashion to earn the right to face Miss Zol in a title showdown.

Miss Kazen had little difficulty, 6-0, 6-2, in convincing Miss Zol she was no match for her on that day.

In men's doubles, Kozarian and Fioritti teamed up to defeat Foley and Wessels in a pair of 6-4 and 6-2 sets while Romulus High net coach, Zane Kuryliw and Rev. Johnson got together to erase Law and Barker in 6-4 and 6-2 sets.

Kuryliw and Rev. Johnson were too much for Kozarian and Fioritti and won the doubles' title in two sets (6-2, 6-2).

The Open Tourney was climaxed with a mixed doubles category as Kuryliw and Miss Zol defeated Wessels and Miss Kadau 6-2, 6-4 and the winners then went on to defeat Bob Selle and Theresa Perry 6-2 and 7-5 while Kozarian and Betty Kazen tamed Rev. Johnson and Nancy Nowitske 6-4 and 8-6.

In the final round, Kuryliw and Miss Zol proved to be the top pair as they won an exciting 6-4, 2-6, and 6-2 match from Kozarian and Miss Kazen.

Safety Should Come First For Boaters

CLEVELAND — Of the forty million boaters getting underway this boating season, too many of them — because of their own thoughtlessness — will never return.

The reason? Many will forget to carry lifesaving devices on board while others will forget where they stowed them or when to use them before it's too late.

Several examples illustrate what can be the tragic results of what appears to be a small oversight.

Earlier this year, a 14-foot "pram" capsized in Maine's Saco River. Although the weather posed no threat, only one of the two persons aboard survived. Neither used a lifesaving device, even though they were carried on board.

Three persons were thrown into Lake Ponchartrain, Louisiana, when their 14-foot boat overturned. Only one occupant was rescued and he was clinging to a floating outboard fuel tank. Lifesaving devices were not carried on board.

A June sailboat regatta off Cleveland came to an abrupt halt when a freak wind storm capsized and swamped most of the boats. Amazingly, no one was seriously injured, and all of 22 of the water-logged boatmen were rescued. Nearly all were wearing Coast Guard-approved lifesaving devices.

The Coast Guard reminds boaters that carrying the devices in a hard-to-reach area of the boat does not provide sufficient protection. Accidents can happen anytime, and afterward may be too late to go looking for something to keep afloat.

Also, if something happens to your boat, stay with it. Most boats will float when overturned or swamped. By remaining with the boat, you will be easier to find by rescuers.

Sets Physical Exam Date

Belleville High School will conduct physical examinations for athletes who will be going out for football or cross country this season. The exams are set for Aug. 21 from 10 a.m. until noon.

Prospective players are urged to get their physicals on that day. No athletes will be allowed to practice without a physical.

Romulus 'Cinderella Team'

ROMULUS — A magic touch in the form of potent bats turned Romulus into the Cinderella team of Wayne's Parks and Recreation playoffs last week.

Romulus remained the playoff 'team to beat' as it disposed of Town & Country Lane 6-2, scoring all six runs with a second inning rally.

In that decisive inning, Howell homered to score enough runs to win it for the underdogs. Aside from the homer, Howell collected a double and wound up two for three for the day. Teammate Wessels also connected for a pair of hits.

Town & Country received a two-run triple from Schulz to account for their only runs.

Earlier, the playoff leaders defeated M & M Shell, the Industrial League champs, 8-4, to capture the playoff championship. Romulus picked up eight runs in the opening two innings to put the game out of reach.

Led by Emonds, who swatted two home runs and had five RBI's for the day, Romulus had little trouble from the previously crowned league champs. Kohlia also went two for three at the plate.

For M & M Shell, McCormack had a perfect day at the plate, collecting three hits in three appearances.

But in their rematch, M & M Shell came back to whip the

THE SPORTS MERIDIAN

By Tom Mooradian

On Winners And Losers

We were discussing winners and losers the other day with Wayne councilman Manny Lentine who has produced his share of both over the past two decades as baseball, football and basketball coach at Wayne St. Mary's High.

He contends that the Sports Meridian doesn't know and can not differentiate between the two or how else could one interpret the statement in one of these columns recently that: "Neither Wayne nor St. Mary's came up with a winning baseball season this year."

"A winning season," explained the Wayne councilman, "is one which the team — any team — wins more games than it loses. Would you agree?" he asked, shoving his hand into his pocket to pull out a slip of paper.

"And, would you agree that six is more than four?" he asked.

I nodded my head.

"Well, then, if St. Mary's won six games this year and lost four, would you say we had a winning season or a losing one?"

"A winning one," I replied.

And so Manny and his Blue Knights produced a winner this year and the Sports Meridian is a loser. (As always)

In fact, St. Mary's — it appears has had winning baseball season for the past six years coming up with a 3-3 record in 1967 (Manny being hospitalized in that year because of a heart ailment) and in 1966 they were 6-3 while in 1965, St. Mary's went undefeated and captured the Southwest Division title, losing the Second Division crown to St. Andrew's 9-1.

And in 1964, the Knights were 8-0 and in 1963, they were 6-2.

"I just like to keep my records straight, don't you?"

I nodded my head.

"And I feel that you should clarify what you mean by a winner the next time you get near your typewriter. If you mean winning a championship, that's different — but, again, I've won my share of those and so has Wayne Memorial. "I feel you're doing many of us coaches injustice when you don't check the files and bring out the facts."

I nodded my head.

Utilizing Prep Talent

Manny went on to discuss errors, coaches and sportswriters. He said the best of players will commit miscues, that coaches on the high school level must evaluate ability not create it and sportswriters should listen more and write less.

"I, myself, feel that as a high school coach a player, no matter if he receives the best of instructions will commit errors. My job, as I see it, is to take an overall view of my player and team, evaluate the ability and talent assembled and utilize that I have in the best interest of the team.

"I wish I had the time to show each boy everything, but, for example, I don't show a boy how to pitch. I don't have time to develop a pitcher. And in spite of all this, we have played over errors, and have come through with winning seasons and championships.

"When our boys do make errors, I don't blame their previous coaches. I blame the boys," Lentine said.

I nodded my head.

"And, in my opinion, you couldn't find a pair of better coaches than Wayne's Gary Green and Jim Chronowski," he added.

Grid Session Ahead

After nodding my head, we discussed the fastly approaching high school football season and what the newspaper could do to give its minions better coverage this year.

And after a minute of mediation, Lentine came up with "Why not a luncheon with all the area coaches (football, that is), and their athletic directors and ask them that same question?"

And I nodded my head.

So, the invitations will go out this week to all area coaches (football coaches, that is) and their athletic directors and the agenda, aside from the menu, will be football.

Well, here we go again, fellows.

'SWINGER' — Taking a cut is Wildcat outfielder Terry Brown who helped his team turn back the Hawkeyes last week, 4-3. That victory clinched the Babe Ruth championship for the Wildcats.

CAPTURE BABE RUTH TITLE

Wildcats Nip Hawkeyes 4-3

By BRUCE McLAREN

The P.N.A. Wildcats hung on to beat the Atchinson Ford Hawkeyes 4-3 and capture the Van Buren Babe Ruth League Championship. The game was a special play-off game to establish a first place team. The two teams had tied for first with records of 14-4.

Bob White went the distance to chalk up the victory for the Wildcats. He gave up only six hits and struck out eight Hawkeye batters. He struck out John Thompson, who lead the Hawkeye with a 426 regular season average, three times.

Dan Smith was tagged with the loss. He fanned twelve and surrendered only two hits, but was plagued by a shabby defense and wildness at times.

The Wildcats jumped on the scoreboard in the first inning, scoring on a walk to Mike Wilkinson, a sacrifice by Frank Mills and a run producing single by White. Neither team could score again until the fourth when the winners capitalized on a base hit, two walks, a throwing error and a couple passed balls to score three times.

Trailing by four runs, the Hawkeyes were set down in order again in the fourth by White. Finally in the bottom of the fourth the Hawkeyes got to White for three runs. Mike Dansard stroked a triple to left to start the rally and jogged home on a ground single to right by Charlie Coppock. Dave Pepper dropped in a single to left and Coppock, who was running on the play raced into third ahead of the throw. Pepper then stole second and scored behind Coppock on a "Texas League" single by Dan Smith. White disposed of Thompson to end the rally.

Smith struck out the side in the sixth and Ed Mahan led off the bottom of the inning with a base hit, but Bob White checked the Hawkeye bats and Mahan died at third. Smith set down the Wildcats in order again in the seventh.

Charlie Coppock reached first safely on an error to start off the Hawkeye seventh. Jim West tried to push a bunt past the mound, but White made a great shoestring catch and doubled Coppock off first. White then got Pepper to ground out to short to give the Wildcats the 1968 Babe Ruth Championship.

AREA BOYS AND GIRLS

Operation Summertime Brings Work, Fun and Play to 285

By PAULA GRIFFIN
 To hundreds of Wayne County children and teenagers, Operation Summertime means jobs, recreation and education.

On July 8, last, 285 teen boys and girls from low-income families began summer jobs in Highland Park, Hamtramck, Ecorse, River Rouge, Inkster, Taylor, Garden City, Sumpter and Romulus.

Paid $1.60 an hour for 20 hours a week, the Summertime employees work at a variety of jobs—playground leader, park maintenance, youth community aide, Head Start helper, library assistant, police and fire department aide, and clerical worker in municipal offices.

Two pilot projects are an on-the-job training program for six boys and placement of 15 special education students on jobs in Garden City.

THE SIX Ecorse youths involved in the "earn-while-you-learn" program work with a self-employed house painter, John McDowell, who has volunteered to give the boys training in the skill of painting as well as to provide them with strong adult guidance.

McDowell's interest in youth is not limited to jobs. He has organized two baseball teams for about 50 target area boys between nine and 16 and a girl's softball team. Baseball equipment has been donated by the local branch of a large department store chain. Ecorse residents have contributed the girls' sporting gear and volunteered to help coach the three teams.

A federal grant of $8,500 makes possible weekend recreation for youth. In Romulus, the teens have held a lawn party and conducted a Saturday film program for younger children.

The Taylor youths' first activity was a dance at which the local Jaycees volunteered to chaperone and the city donated refreshments.

Highlighting the educational aspects of the program are informative sessions on law sponsored by Wayne County Suburban Legal Services, Inc. Two sessions are held for the Summertime employees. The first meeting introduces the teens to the importance of law and features a film. The second program will be a trip to Court to see law in action.

IN RIVER ROUGE, a journalism workshop for target-area teens is being conducted by Eric Planin, a recent Michigan State University graduate. The twice-a-week sessions at the Beechwood Community Center cover the elements of news reporting and writing.

The 15 participants will have an opportunity to contribute articles to a local newspaper. Highlighting the five-week program will be talks by veteran newsmen from the Detroit dailies.

Also in River Rouge, the city recreation department, through Operation Summertime, has instituted a library cruiser—a bus which picks up target-area youngsters in their neighborhoods and transports them to the library. Operation Summertime will end Aug. 16.

Hold Bowl Tourney

TROY, MICH. — The 31st annual John Gavis All-Star Invitational Bowling Tournament will be staged here on Monday, Aug. 19, with Coca Cola and Helen Shablis Stars, the defending men's and women's champs, ready to challenge the field.

The tourney will be held at the Thunderbird (Beat the Champ) lanes, located at 400 Maple Road, beginning at 7:30 p.m. This year's meet is being dedicated to the Honorable Judge Richard M. Maher, a great booster of bowling.

Entry fee for the men's classic is $50 while the women pay only the cost of bowling ($9.75). In addition to prize money totaling $1,400, special trophies will be awarded to teams and individuals in various categories.

The tourney will be limited, however, to 28 men's teams and 12 All-Star women's squads.

For further information, contact John Gavis, tournament director at 372-5087, or Pinky's Sport Shop at DR. 1-3690.

It is estimated that Oregon has more than 650,000 large game animals, the most numerous being deer.

Little League Football Calls Meeting

ROMULUS — A meeting on the Little League football for youth in Romulus Township will be held Thursday, Aug. 15 at 8 p.m., Ron Hopson, Romulus Rotary representative announced. The meeting will be held at the Romulus Senior High School.

The newly organized Romulus Athletic Association is seeking to present recreation to youth of Romulus Township. The first program is the formation of a Little League Football team. The Romulus Jaycees and Rotarians are assisting the Association.

The July 15 deadline for the acceptance of player applications has been extended to permit Township youth further opportunity to sign up. All parents are "strongly" urged to attend the meeting held to initiate the program, discuss various phases of team building and player seeking campaigns.

 previously undefeated playoff leader, 6-4, as M & M scored three runs in the fifth inning and two in the sixth to settle the dispute.

Coole finished up with three hits in three appearances and Kovacs carved out two for three to lead the winners while Twitchell came alive with three hits for three trips and Wessells chipped in three more base hits, getting four chances to do so.

Howell and Gillum each had two for three.

In another hotly contested game, M & M survived 6-5 over Town & Country Lanes, the latter was knocked out of the playoffs with this latest setback. M & M scored the winning run with two away in the bottom of the sixth on an infield hit by Phelps and a throwing error.

M & M Shell spotted Daly Drive - In three runs in the first inning and then came back to beat them 12-3. The winners collected five runs in the fourth inning to break open the tight contest.

Trilex Corp. also felt the sting of M & M bats, falling on the short-end of a 12-3 decision. M & M again needed a rally, scoring seven in the fourth thanks to a homer by Phelps and Boucher's three for four performance.

The regular monthly meeting of the HCMA Board took place at Stony Creek Metropolitan Park near Utica, where members of the commission also toured the 3,500 acre regional site.

Members of the Commission include county representatives - Livingston - Charles H. Sutton, of Howell; Macomb - Thomas S. Welsh, of St. Clair Shores; Oakland - James Clarkson, of

City Gets Tax Of $4,154

BELLEVILLE - Distribution by the State Highway Department the second quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections to Michigan Counties, and cities and villages is underway.

The distribution will bring to the City of Belleville the sum of $4,154.

Henrik E. Stafseth, state highway director, said the net Highway Fund receipts during April, May and June totaled $67,060,769, an increase of $11,133,623 over the same period in 1967. Most of the increase is due to the one cent a gallon tax boost effective last Jan. 1.

The Motor Vehicle Fund includes all state gasoline, diesel fuel taxes and license plates fees.

After collections costs and State Waterway Commission share, distribution is made under a percent age formula for use of local highways, streets and roads.

FOR WAYNE COUNTY

Human Relations Bureau Underway

Groundwork has been completed by Wayne County officials for the first Office of Human Relations at the county level in Michigan.

The office, which is being established to promote non-discrimination in the recruitment and promotion of county employees, is expected to open late this year, following the hiring of a director for the office.

Qualified applicants for the new post are being sought.

The Wayne County Civil Service Commission, 628 City-County Building, Detroit 48226, is accepting applications until Aug. 30, 1968.

SALARY FOR the new director of human relations has been set at $17,961, matching that of the secretary-director of the Detroit Commission on Community Relations, as of July 1, 1967, because the responsibilities are similar.

Basic qualifications include a bachelor's degree with a major in social sciences, education, psychology or a closely related field, plus at least four years of administrative experience in social casework, group social work, public relations work, personnel, or human relations work.

Establishment of the Office of Human Relations was recommended by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission.

The state agency studied Wayne County employment patterns at the request of the County Board of Supervisors. Initially, the director and a secretary will be the only office personnel.

County Mill Levy Approved

By 171,989 to 78,617 Vote

Efforts to achieve long-range solutions to Wayne County's financial problems were promised in the wake of the overwhelming approval of County Proposition No. 1 in the Aug. 6 primary election.

The proposition, which continues an expiring one-mill property levy ($1 per $1,000 of equalized valuation) for another five years, was approved by a vote of 171,989 to 78,617.

"We are pleased that the voters have recognized the need to continue their present support of vital county services while we continue our efforts to achieve a sound basis for financing county government," said Richard H. Austin, County Auditor. He added:

"As we have stressed from the beginning, even with the one mill Wayne County government is financed inadequately. The voters have made it possible for us to maintain minimally adequate public services while we strive to convince the State to face up to its full responsibilities to the people of Wayne County, and to correct the present over-dependence on the property tax."

JUVENILE COURT Judge James H. Lincoln, who was chairman of Citizens for County Proposition No. 1, stated: "I am proud of the way the voters have expressed their confidence in Wayne County's efforts to make ours a better community."

"We are most gratified by the tremendous job done by the newspapers, radio and television, many local communities, organizations and individuals in conveying the importance of County Proposition No. 1 to the citizenry," he added.

The one-mill, while costing the average homeowner only about 50 cents monthly, produces about $9.5-million annually to support county services in the fields of juvenile delinquency, law enforcement, child care, hospital care, public health, mental health, the courts, education, library services and parks.

U.S. Checks on Smoking

The U.S. Census Bureau interviews will conduct a survey here concerning the smoking habits of the population during the week of Aug. 19, Director Robert A. Yerkey of the Census Regional Office, Detroit announced.

Interviewers will ask about people's past smoking habits as well as present habits in order to discover whether there have been significant changes over the past year.

Interviews conducted locally are part of the third annual survey of smoking habits taken among a representative sample of the nation's population to provide statistical data for the U.S. Public Health Service.

THE QUESTIONS on smoking will be asked during the Bureau's monthly labor force inquiries. Questions about jobs are designed to provide data for use of the U.S. Department of Labor in determining current national employment and unemployment trends.

The identity of households in the survey throughout the U.S. is confidential, and the information obtained will be used only for statistical purposes.

HART, FAUST RESPONDING

Area's Drive for Clean Water Supported by UAW Officials

BELLEVILLE - The office of Walter P. Reuther, would put the full power of organized labor behind the Committee's project to clean up the Huron River, Mrs. William Hilden, chairman of the Clean Water Committee of the United Auto Workers stated.

Russell Leach of the AFL-CIO Council has also stated that the full effort of the Council would be used to support the movement, she added.

The publicity committee stated that no reports are necessary since all departments of the State and Federal Government have been advised of the situation for years and have repeatedly given the same reply, namely that they would investigate, but in twenty years of investigation the river has turned into an uncovered septic tank.

Phil Eller, vice-chairman of the Huron River Anti-Pollution Committee stated that the Chairman, Ray Suliman, met in Washington, D. C., with Congressman William D. Ford and Congressmen of the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration, Kenneth Biglane.

A REPLY was received from a representative of General Motors Corporation requesting that a meeting be held between the Committee and the Corporation representatives.

Upon being advised of the condition of the Huron River, Senator Phillip Hart responded in these words:

"I will be as helpful as I can, and have asked for a prompt report from appropriate officers.

State Senator William Faust responded in the same political manner, stating that he has referred the matter to John E. Vogt of the Department of Public Health, Publicity Chairman Ernest Ryback.

Signatures are still needed for Pollution Control action and any parties interested in helping are urged to obtain petitions at Hoot's booth's, at 146 High Street, Belleville or OX 7-7670.
